NEMO

The Network of European Museum
Organisations –

a link for Museums to the EU

What is NEMO?

- Founded in 1992
- An informal network of museum organisations representing the museum community in Europe
- Based in Berlin, hosted by the German Museums Association

Who are the Members of NEMO?

- National museums associations
 - NGOs working for museums on a national scale
 - National government bodies responsible for museums
 - Associated members: individual museums, interest groups, other European organisations
- Scope: Council of Europe
 - Currently, NEMO has members in all 28 EU Member States, plus Norway, Switzerland, Russia, Serbia and Iceland.

NETWORKING

- NEMO enables museums to network and share best practice at the European level and helps museum professionals to collaborate on multilateral projects through our website and network.
- NEMO works with other cultural network organisations in Europe to emphasise common causes and objectives and to demonstrate how cultural activities are strengthened by working together.

EU LIASION

- NEMO informs its members and the museum sector at large about current and prospective European policies on culture and museums, and about the funding opportunities offered by various EU programmes.
- NEMO liaises with relevant European Union institutions, particularly the EU Commission, the EU Parliament and EU presidency stakeholders.
- NEMO regularly publishes news and influences EU programmes, initiatives and recommendations relevant to museums.

Four Strategic Areas:

1. Collection Value
2. Educational Value
3. Social Value
4. Economical Value

European Heritage
Alliance 3.3

New Narrative for Europe, Manifesto launched in April 2014, initiated by (ex-) EC President Barroso

- „ (...) an urgent realignment of emphasis within the European political body is needed and Europe must acknowledge that culture is a major source of nourishment and supply for Europe’s social and political body. “
- “Europe as a political body needs to recognize the value of cultural heritage, both tangible and intangible. (...) It is a powerful instrument that provides a sense of belonging amongst and between European citizens.”

COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

Conclusions on cultural heritage as a strategic resource for a sustainable Europe

*EDUCATION, YOUTH, CULTURE and SPORT Council meeting
Brussels, 20 May 2014*

- „cultural heritage plays an important role in creating and enhancing social capital”
- “cultural heritage has an important economic impact, including as an integral part of the cultural and creative sectors”
- “cultural heritage (...) has social and economic impact and contributes to environmental sustainability”
- “cultural heritage cuts across several public policies beyond the cultural, such as those related to regional development, social cohesion, agriculture, maritime affairs, environment, tourism, education, the digital agenda, research and innovation. These policies have a direct or indirect impact on cultural heritage and at the same time cultural heritage offers a strong potential for the achievement of their objectives. Therefore, this potential should be fully recognised and developed.”

2014 Presidenza Italiana
del Consiglio
dell'Unione Europea

- “(...) emphasizing [culture’s] (...) impact for social and economic development as well as culture’s contribution to job creation (...) interaction of cultural policy with other policy fields, and the need for an evidence-based change in cultural policy.”
- “(...) culture can contribute significantly to economic recovery and social cohesion (...) “(...) cultural heritage as a decisive factor of sustainable development, with special regard to its economic and social aspects. “
- “(...) cross-cutting nature of cultural heritage and its potential for synergies with other policy fields will be explored(...)”
“(...) highlighting the potential of heritage for the Europe 2020 Strategy.”
